 - A. The way the officers --

MR. ROACH: Objection. Go ahead, you can answer.

A. After he stated to us what he wanted us to do as from the commander, other officers began to speak negatively about it, you know, they didn't want to go to the schools, they got tired of dealing with kids from Dorchester High, you know, dealing with them, going into their houses, you know, where the houses were full of roaches. Uhmm, you know, other officers began to speak negative about, you know, the black officers that were assigned, you

Dorchester High at that time? 1

A. Yes, they were, but every student up there 2 3 is not a rapist or murderer.

Page 100

- O. Did anybody else say anything?
- A. There was Detective Fratalia.
- Q. What did he say?

A. He began to speak negatively about, you know, you know, What the hell are them two minority officers up there doing. And, you know, he stated that, you know, basically, I wouldn't even send my 10 dog to Dorchester High because it was so bad. I was 11 like, wow, you know, I didn't, I didn't appreciate 12 that comment. You know, like I said, you know, to 13 14 say something like that, you know, only to know that 15 there were other students who are a little bit bright up there, you know, everybody wasn't bad. I 16 mean, I didn't think that comment was totally 18 inappropriate.

- Q. But the purpose of the meeting was that Lieutenant French was assigning officers to Dorchester High?
- A. Yes, which they, they didn't, they didn't want to go back into the schools. You know, basically, there was a lot of, you know, everybody

Q. And who were those officers?

A. Officer Teto Witherton and Eric Braxton, I believe, detective, I believe, Eric Braxton.

Q. If I've understood you correctly, you said a few of the officers spoke about how they didn't want to do it, who spoke and who said what?

MR. ROACH: Objection. Go ahead.

A. Officer, now Sergeant Detective, Gerard Bailey spoke about, you know, how he had taken his daughter to a parent information conference, and I guess some, another youth asked him about the Dorchester High, he responded like, I wouldn't, you know, you know, I would -- well, actually, only,

20 only rapists, murderers, you know, people who commit 21

violent crimes go to the school, you know, which I 22

knew that to be untrue. 23

Q. But they were having a lot problems at was stating that we wanted to stay to, you know, the assignment at hand, which was just looking for the individuals wanted for warrants, and stuff like that.

Q. But they had to go; right? MR. ROACH: Objection.

this time. It was kind of going through the transition where one might have been leaving and the 2 3 other was the next in command. Q. So you told Lieutenant Foley or Lieutenant 4

French?

A. I might have expressed some feeling towards, you know, how the officers had looked upon me as being the instigator of this whole racial tension thing; that they assumed, like I say, me and Officer Brown were the instigators who initiated it, so they showed a little bit of hostility towards us.

Q. When was it that you think you told Lieutenant French or Lieutenant Foley?

A. Maybe a week or so afterwards.

Q. A week or so after this was brought to your attention?

A. Yes, but I had felt some of the hostilities within the unit also from some of the white officers. We didn't -- when we go out on the street, we had a squabble in the street and there were certain issues; so I knew it was there.

O. When did you have squabbles on the street with the white officers?

A. It was myself and Officer Brown out on the individual, and the individual was very boisterous about, "Why are you guys stopping me 2 in the middle of the street?" He was standing at the bus stop. He was like, "Why are you harassing 4 5 me?"

Me and Officer Brown had pulled out. I believe we was coming down Washington Street and had called off and had stopped to assist.

Page 168

Q. You stopped to assist?

A. The white officers, who were Officer Ridge, 10 11 Brian Albert, Mike Fayles.

Q. What happened next?

A. Like I said, the individual carried on to, 13

"Why are you harassing me? I'm not doing anything. 14

I'm stopped at the bus stop."

Basically, we approached the white officer and asked him, like, "What you got? Is there any way we can be of any assistance."

Basically, they told us that "We could handle it. Back off. This is ours." 20

Q. Mm-hmm. Is that all you can remember about 21 22 the squabble?

A. Well, we had words. I think it was a little bit unprofessional between us and the white officer, patrol, and Officer Steven Ridge, who is white; 1 Brian Albert; and Mike Fayles. 2

Q. How long after the Park Plaza meeting did this occur?

A. I don't know how long, but it did happen.

O. Was it within the first -- was it a month after the Park Plaza meeting?

A. It could have been.

Q. Did you go to your commander, Lieutenant 11 Foley, about this? 12

A. I don't know who I approached at the time, 13 who was in charge at the time, but I did just confer 14 with him about what had transpired. 15

O. What did you say?

A. I just told him how -- you know, the 17 situation, what had happened, and he said he would 18 19 look into it.

Q. Can you tell me about the squabble?

A. It was --21

Q. What happened?

A. They had stopped a minority citizen on 23

Washington Street. I don't know -- I don't recall myself with this white officer, a squabble, and in the middle of the public like that, but I just kind of stepped away and waited until they finished and me and Officer Brown went back on patrol.

Q. What did the officer say to you?

A. Basically, "Fuck off." He told us to "Fuck off. We got this. We are handling it."

I assume they was handling it, but the individual was sitting there, "Why are you guys fucking harassing me? You had no fucking reason to. I'm waiting for the fucking bus stop."

Q. What did you say when the officers said "Fuck

A. I believe I used profanity back at him, but after a while it came to -- I was like, well, this is totally unprofessional in front of the public. There was other people at the bus stop. I just basically backed away and told Ron, "Let's go," and got back in on patrol.

Q. When did you go and talk to Lieutenant Foley about the squabble?

A. I cannot recall if it was later on that evening when he came back to the unit, I believe, or his assignment or whatever he was doing. He
